

About Us

Amie Clark, BSW
Owner

The Senior Resource Network is a multi-faceted company driven by the ideals, strength, and compassion of a social work foundation. We offer a variety of services to seniors, their families, social workers, and long term care facilities.

Amie Clark, BSW has worked with seniors throughout her career. As a degreed social worker, she has a variety of experiences from working as an Ombudsman to Social Services Director in several skilled nursing facilities in Oregon. She has built a knowledge base to support any situation that may arise and is familiar with the many resources available in our Portland market for seniors and their families. Let her experience and compassion work for you.
